EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

I am an educator with many years of experience teaching graduate students at one of the top MBA programs in the country. I am the recipient of three consecutive teaching awards for the Executive MBA program. Prior to entering the academic world, I had an extensive career in real estate development and property management, as Controller, CFO, and President of development companies. I serve as faculty advisor for various student groups, and I received the Rollins College DEIB award in 2024.
